

Matthew Algie Annual Statement

Modern Slavery Prevention in 2023 Financial Year

This statement has been published in accordance with Section 54 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015. It sets out the steps that Matthew Algie & Company Limited has taken in relation to the prevention of modern slavery during the 2023 financial year, ending 31st December 2023.

1. Organisational Structure, our Business, and our Supply Chains

- 1.1 Matthew Algie is primarily a coffee roaster, offering fresh, sustainably sourced coffees to the catering and retail sector in the UK and Ireland. We employ over 400 people and over half of these are based at our roastery in Glasgow whilst the remainder are field based to provide regular, face-to-face contact with customers. Our customers range from cafés to restaurants to pubs and contract caterers and include both national retail chains and single-outlet independents.
- 1.2 Our founder, Matthew Algie, first started the business importing tea on the Clyde in 1864, over 150 years ago. Company strategy transitioned to focus mainly on coffee in the post-War era although we have continued to produce some own-brand tea. The business remained independently owned by the Matthew Algie family until August 2016 when Matthew Algie was acquired by the German coffee and food service business, Tchibo Coffee Service GmbH. Under this structure we have a new platform for further expansion and innovation.
- 1.3 Matthew Algie sources coffee to meet the requirements for our blends based upon quality, flavour, seasonality and sustainability. We have worked hard over the years to consolidate our supply chain and develop direct, long-term relationships with suppliers in coffee growing regions, though we buy green (unroasted) coffee through intermediary coffee traders who help facilitate the logistics and administration relating to our purchases. Our pioneering commitment to sustainability certifications complements our commitment to long-term relationships with suppliers. We were the first roaster in the UK to launch a triple certified espresso (Fairtrade, Rainforest Alliance and Organic) in 2004. In 2023, 83% of the coffee we roasted held one or more of these certifications.
- 1.4 As well as coffee, Matthew Algie offers customers a convenient one stop shop, catering to all their needs. We mainly do this by working with selected third-party suppliers to offer customers a range of machines and “everything but the coffee” via our Espresso Warehouse brand. Our Espresso Warehouse catalogue range includes teas, hot chocolate powders, flavoured syrups, delicious treats and barista kit. Our commitment to sustainability certifications is maintained in these noncoffee products, with many of the relevant supply chains, most notably for our tea and hot chocolate products, holding Fairtrade, Rainforest Alliance or organic certification.
- 1.5 The contents of this statement refer solely to steps taken by Matthew Algie & Company Limited, including the Espresso Warehouse business unit.

2. Assessment of Modern Slavery Risk in Our Business and Our Supply Chains

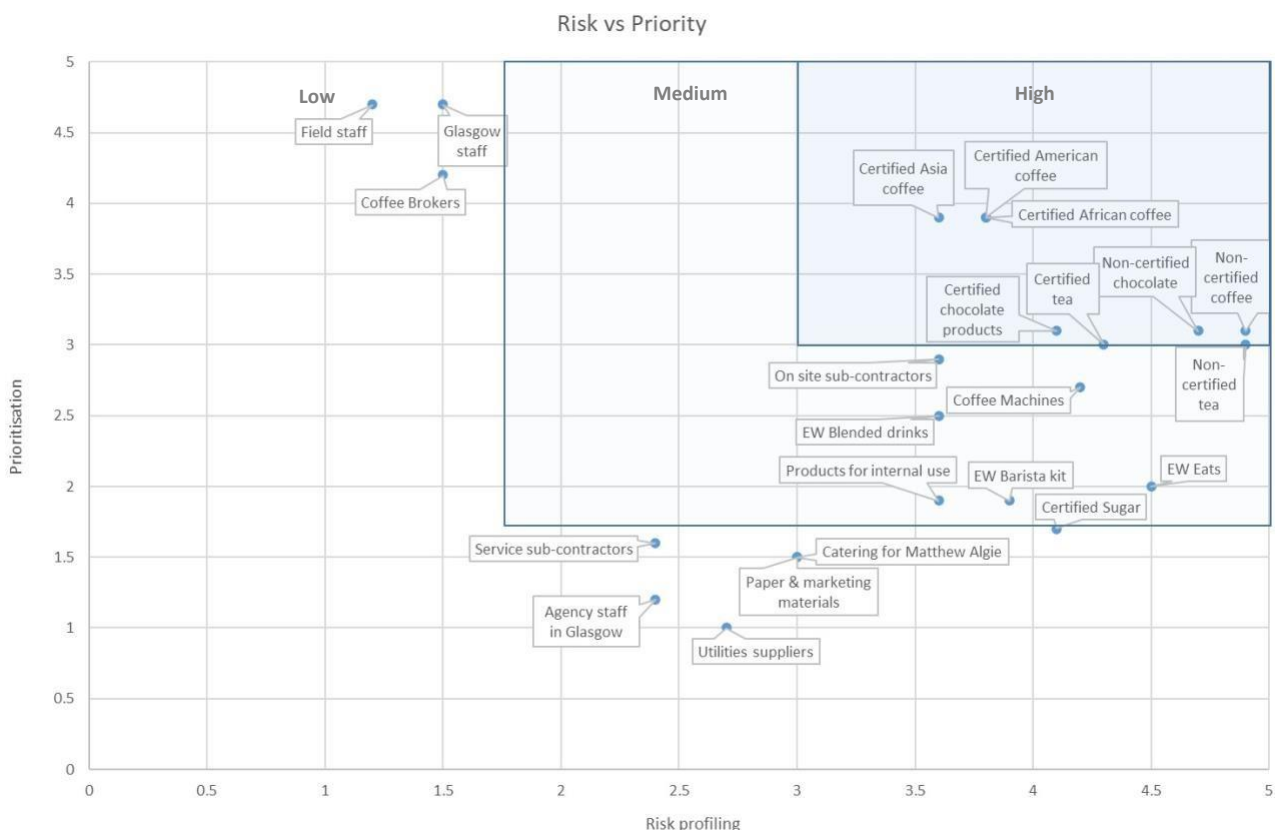

2.1 Matthew Algie holds human rights in the very highest regards and has a zero-tolerance approach to all human rights violations across the business and our supply chain.

2.2 We understand “modern slavery” to be when a person:

- holds another person in slavery or servitude,
- requires another person to perform forced or compulsory labour, or,
- arranges or facilitates the travel of another person with a view to them being exploited (human trafficking).

2.3 In 2016/17 we started formally assessing the risk of modern slavery in our business and supply chains. To plan our actions effectively, we also prioritised the areas that are of greatest importance to us as a business and are within our sphere of influence. Further information on our methodology is given in our statement on Modern Slavery Prevention for the 2017 financial year.

2.4 The outcomes of our assessment for 2023 are displayed in the below matrix. The results demonstrate no changes in 2023 and confirm that we should concentrate primarily on our coffee, tea and hot chocolate supply chains. We will continue to review the risk assessment on at least an annual basis to ensure our actions remain relevant.

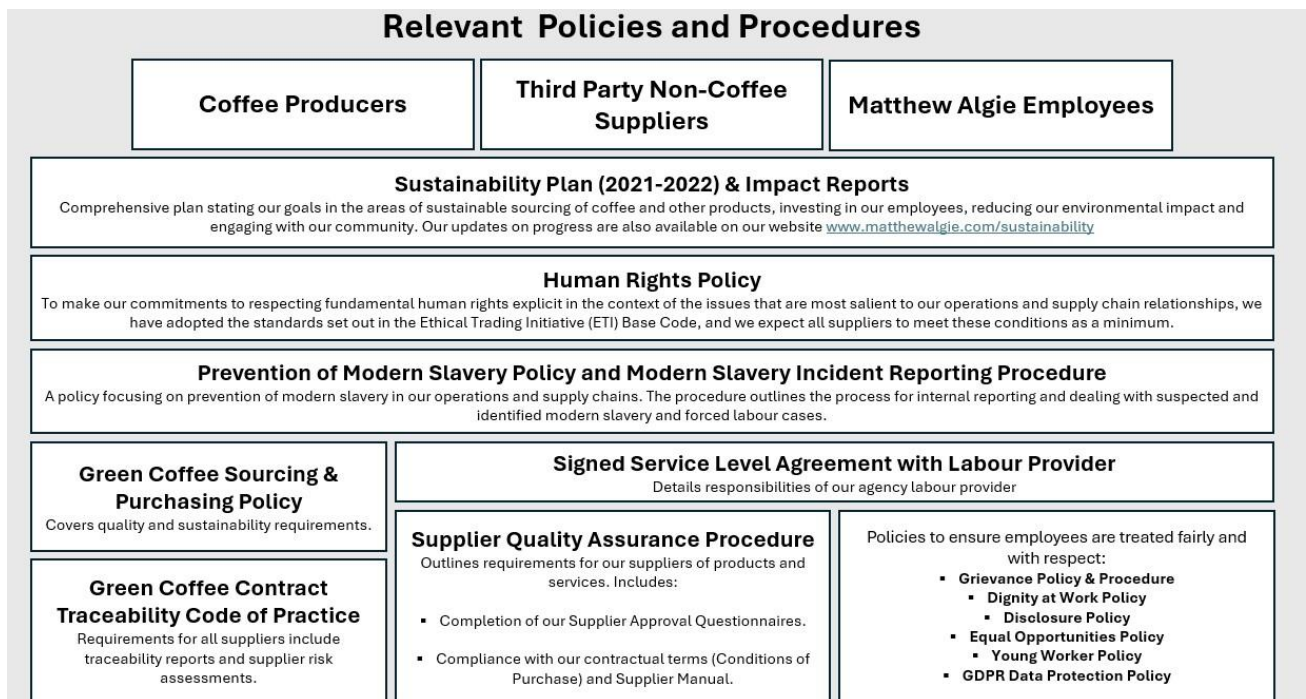

2.5 In 2023, Arabica futures prices ranged between approximately 140 cents per pound and 200 cents per pound. In August 2023, Fairtrade increased their baseline price by 19% and 29%, for Robusta and Arabica coffee respectively. This was implemented due to the increasing additional costs due to climate change mitigation and market fluctuations that farmers are facing. Increasing cost for energy, fertiliser and labour costs are key challenges for farmers and are reflected in responses we have received to our annual supplier survey. In this context, the risk of child labour in the coffee industry will have increased over the last few years, and it is particularly crucial that every stakeholder in the downstream coffee value chain plays their part in paying a fair price for the coffee that they buy.

- 2.6 We continue to annually review our risk assessment looking specifically at our recruitment procedure. All the risks identified here rated as either low, medium or high risk based on probable frequency and level of severity or impact. The exercise was helpful for understanding where we can control the risk of modern slavery in our recruitment process and potential areas for improvement.

3. Our Policies in Relation to Modern Slavery

- 3.1 The below diagram explains our existing policies and procedures which are of relevance to the prevention of modern slavery in our own operations and our supply chain.

- 3.2 Our 2021-22 Sustainability Report was published in April 2023, and we aim to publish continual updates to this. Our commitment to externally reporting on this progress provides helpful accountability and transparency with our stakeholders. Our goals for 2023-24 were detailed within this Plan. Relevant key performance indicators from the Plan have been copied into Section 5 below.

4. Our Due Diligence Processes in 2023 and Assessment of their Effectiveness

4.1 Risk Mitigation Within Our Operations

4.1.1 Our mitigation activities with respect to our own operations remains consistent with our approach in previous years. We have clearly defined roles and responsibilities, relevant and up-to-date policies and procedures, service level agreements with our temporary labour providers which they are audited against, and we provide relevant training to our employees. For more information, please refer to our previous annual statements.

4.1.2 The training that has been undertaken in 2023 to further improve the capabilities of our employees includes:

- ✦ Our internal training module in Prevention of Modern Slavery in Supply Chains focuses on employees in roles relating to Purchasing, Technical/Quality Assurance and New Product Development who are directly in contact with third-party suppliers.

4.1.3 As noted above, we conducted our annual review of the risk of modern slavery in our recruitment process. In relation to this, we only ever use temporary agency labour where there is a specific need. In 2023, 32 agency workers were employed. This number is unusual for our business and was a result of extensive work in our software systems that lead to a complete change to our warehousing; an investment in the warehouse roof also caused disruptions, requiring short term staff. Of the 32 agency employees, 5 became permanent staff.

4.2 Risk Mitigation Within Our Supply Chains

4.2.1 As described in our previous statements, our visits to key coffee suppliers help us to fully understand the local context and consider the level of risk of modern slavery. In 2023 we visited suppliers in Brazil. Our annual process of planning visits to origin is completed based on our current sourcing as well as prioritisation based on feedback from producers, exporters and importers within our supply chains.

4.2.2 To provide us with more information on our coffee suppliers on a case-by-case basis, we continue to make use of our Green Coffee Supplier Risk Assessment Approval Forms which includes a section that provides a clear link to the Ethical Trading Initiative Base Code in multiple languages. It asks the supplier to assess the risks of forced labour, unsafe or unhygienic working conditions, payment of illegal wages, excessive working hours, discrimination and harsh or inhumane treatment within its operations. It also requests details of the controls that the supplier has in place to reduce these risks. The opportunity to communicate our baseline requirements and assess our supplier's approach in these areas is especially helpful for our non-certified coffee supply chain.

4.2.3 77% of the coffee we roasted in 2023 held either (or both) Fairtrade and Rainforest Alliance certification. Our commitment to these certifications extends into the other products we source including tea, chocolate, and sugar.

4.2.4 For the purposes of prevention of modern slavery, both the Fairtrade and Rainforest Alliance standards include criteria relating to social practices on the farm. For specific information on the core and development criteria relating to prevention of forced labour, please refer to Appendix 2.

4.2.5 We also actively participated in the public consultation for Fairtrade's review of their Standard for Coffee. The second consultation period was open until February 2021 and was published in July 2021. The standard has been updated to reflect a stronger approach to trading practices and commitment to human rights and environmental due diligence. For example, when it comes to human rights, producers are now required to carry out mandatory assessments, and develop proactive policies and procedures for the prevention of child labour, forced labour and human trafficking.

4.2.6 Buying coffee on Fairtrade terms ensures producers receive a minimum price, plus an additional social premium. Organic certification also includes a specified premium. In 2022, the Fairtrade Foundation began a consultation on their approach to pricing in their standards. We provided feedback as part of the consultation process. The new Fairtrade Minimum Price for washed Arabica beans – which represent more than 80 percent of all Fairtrade coffee sold – is $1.80 per pound, an increase of 40 cents over the previous price of $1.40 per pound. These changes have taken effect in August 2023.

4.2.7 Of the coffee we roasted in 2023, 62% were Fairtrade certified, a further 24% held both Fairtrade and organic certifications. 36% were Rainforest Alliance certified, and an additional 17% held Fairtrade, organic and Rainforest Alliance certifications. It is our responsibility to continue promoting the benefits of these certifications in the UK market and making the case for them to our customers. This allows us to source most of our coffee on Fairtrade, Rainforest Alliance and organic certified terms and hopefully increase the amount of certified coffee we source from suppliers.

4.2.8 Incorporated into the new Rainforest Alliance standards is a new requirement for supply chain actors to pay a Sustainability Differential on all certified contracts. Use of the Differential for groups of smallholders will be determined by each farmer member. For large farms, the Differential will be used to benefit farm workers. Additionally, buyers will be required to make Sustainable Investments which are designed to assist producers in implementing their development plan. Complementary to this, the new farm standards include a more comprehensive approach to ensuring living incomes and living wages are received. For example, by providing farms with tools to help them to assess their risks more accurately, understand where there is a need to improve through using benchmarks (e.g. Global Living Wage Coalition studies) and measure progress over time.
